RILEY-STEWART PLAN PASSES; SCHOOLS EXEMPTION DEFEATED HERE

According to unofficial returns Wednesday, voters of Washington township Tuesday favored repeal with a vengeance, casting 1885 votes that the state of California ratify the proposed amendment for the nullification of the Eighteenth amendment. Only 221 votes was cast against the proposition.

Proposal No. 1, the Riley-Stewart plan, passed by a large majority of votes, the final tally being 1295 in favor of and 622 against it.

No. 4, dealing with the tax exemption of non-profit schools was barely beaten, five votes being the margin of its defeat.

Proposals 9 and 10, dealing with the division of gas tax funds to balance the budget were snowed under, 1531 to 375, and 1580 to 319 respectively.

In another column will be found the tabulated vote of the township.

CHICAGO FAIR IS SUBJECT OF TALK AT CIVIC MEETING

E. A. Ellsworth Tells Of Main Features of Exposition

Meeting for the last time until September 11, the Niles Chamber of Commerce Monday heard a vividly interesting talk by E. A. Ellsworth on the Century if Progress exposition at Chicago, from which he returned last week. Producing pictures and booklets of interesting features of the fair, Ellsworth told of the novel architectural designs employed by the men who mapped out the dispaly.

In relation to the designs, Ellsworth said that the youth seemed to appreciate them, rather than those of the older generations whose minds are cemented to current usages in architecture. He said that the surprise first felt at the initial glimpses of the buildings soon wore away, and the sense of the construction began to appear.

He said that he was particularly interested in the electrical displays, and especially in the wide use of photo-electric "eyes." Use of the latter, he said, obviated the necessity for the conventional hand-valves on the drinking fountains, so that one had simply to lean over the device to cause the water to flow. This, he explained, was worked by the interruption of a small beam of light directed on a photo-electric cell, the interruption of the beam breaking a circuit which actuated the valve.

Ellsworth told of the materials used in construction of the fair buildings, saying that it seemed sensible that the future homes and buildings would be built in a similar fashion, using cheap, durable materials that could be replaced at little expense, instead of the present clumsy structures that are built to last forever only to be dismantled in a few years.

Previous to Ellsworth's talk, W. B. Kirk told the chamber of the disaster hanging over the farmers of the country with the dis-

TOWNSHIP FARM INDUSTRIES, ENTER STATE FAIR SHOW

Farmers and Factories To Display Products at Sacramento

Washington township will play an important part in the 1933 State Fair that opens at Sacramento September 2.

Growers of vegetables throughout the townhsip are taking much interest in entering a display as part of the Alameda county exhibit, according to the county exhibit committtee.

Centerville, Alvarado, Niles, Irvington and Decoto growers will display potatoes, tomatoes, cucumbers, cauliflower, celery, sweet-corn, bell peppers, and onions.

There will be clay products from the kilns at Niles, also salt from the refineries along the Newark-Alvarado marshes.

Flower growers are urged to enter zinnias, asters and dahlias in the floriculture division of the State Fair.

Ample space has been provided this year to house the county display, according to Supervisor Ralph V. Richmond, of Niles, a member of the county exhibit committee. Details for entering products can be secured by writing the Alameda County Development Commission at 510 Fifteenth street, Oakland. Trophies will be awarded winners, the prizes going to the grower in every instance.

Taking a lead in sponsoring the Alameda county exhibit with Richmond, are M. G. Callaghan, Livermore; J. C. Fogarty, Alameda; John U. Calkins, Jr., Berkeley; N. W. Armstrong, San Leandro; Paul Goldsmith, Piedmont, and Harry G. Williams, Oakland.

Miss Bunker, Niles Grammar school teacher, left Monday on the National Educational Association special train from Niles for Portland, Oreon. She will leave later from there to go to Chicago, and the Worlds Fair.

Mrs. Florence Hudson left last Thursday for the summer camp of relatives, north of Auburn.

FEAR FALLING FACADES? FUI! SAY FIREMEN

FLAMING TIMBERS may fall and chimneys may crash in future fires in the town of Niles, but all unconcerned will be the firemen who, in their new cast-iron hats, will perform their duties to society as calmly as though they were playing checkers.

Faced with the outrageous price of $10, or more, for the regulation helmets such as Ed Wynn effects, the members of the Niles department decided that in a trench helmet would shed shrapnel it really should have no trouble with a few falling chimneys or a two-by-eight joist. Hence it was decided that the men be equipped with the regulation "Tin Hat."

As an added asset, the hats can be used at future fires by the bucket chains as water containers in case the pump should fail—not to mention growing ferns in them between conflagrations, since fires in the town are getting a little discouraged. Those firemen just won't give a poor little flame a chance!

TRIUMPHANT NILES POLOISTS WIN TROPHY

In a game packed with thrills and hilarity, in which it became necessary for the players to carry the jackasses at intervals, the Niles polo team beat the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce Sunday at Harry Rowell's ranch in Dublin Canyon. Sunday's game proved to be the feature of the Hayward rodeo, spectators insisting that no circus could offer such mirth-provoking performances.

By winning from the Hayward team Saturday and the Pleasanton team Sunday, the Niles poloists brought home the loving cup offered by Harry Rowell. A handsome engraved chalice, it is to be seen in the window of the Jones & Ellsworth office in Niles.

The two games at Hayward over the week-end were run off with greater alacrity than the game at Niles last week. No doubt the jackasses began to realize that the ball should take their interest and not reminiscences of palmy days on the open range.

The final game of the season will be played at the Pleasanton Fourth of July celebration. Feeling that they still have a chance to upset the invincible Niles aggregation, the Pleasanton poloists are planning a subtle attack. It is rumored that if the score becomes too much in favor of Niles, their opponents will resort to tear gas and nets.

GROWER VIOLATES FRUIT ACT; GETS 50 DOLLAR FINE

Charged with violation of the California Fruit, Nut and Vegetable act, M. Nagai, Warm Springs berry grower, was fined Friday $50 at the Niles courthouse by Judge J. A. Silva.

Nagai was arrested last Wednesday on a complaint filed by W. B. Kirk, agricultural inspector. He was charged with the misdemeanor of placing small, inferior berries in the bottom of his baskets, with a veneer of large berries over the top.

Nagai pleaded guilty to the charge.

THREE ACQUITTED IN "LUSITANIA" CASE AT OAKLAND COURT

Coffelt and Searle Must Stand Re-trial On Charges, Later

Unable to reach a verdict after deliberating since last Friday morning, the jury in the Lusitania swindle case was Monday dismissed by Superior Judge Frank M. Ogden. Three of the defendants were acquitted and two—Coffelt and Searl—must stand a retrial.

Smith, Fernandez and Freitas were cleared of guilt by the Jurors. Freitas and Fernandez were hilarious over their freedom, but Smith wept with joy.

One juror was cited for contempt of court for not regarding an order to refrain from discussing the case in the court room.

Approaching the record for long deliberations in the east bay courts, the jury in "The Lusitania Case" was still deadlocked at noon Monday. The jury was given the case last Friday morning, following more than six weeks of testimony. Superior Judge Frank M. Ogden ordered them locked up Saturday afternoon for the week-end.

Since May 1, the jury had listened to complicated testimony relating to tangled-up deals through which five men were accused of obtaining some $50,000 by unlawful means. Each of the five was accused of fourteen counts of grand theft and one of conspiracy, making possible more than one hundred verdicts.

The five men were arrested in January in connection with the Pittsburg Building and Loan Association and its holding company, the Lusitania Corporation, Ltd.

Several Washington township residents were among those who testified against the five men, on counts of being swindled out of various sums of money early in the year.

Joaquin Oliveria, of Niles, claimed to have contributed nearly $10,000 to buy stocks in the firms; Antone Silveria, of Mission San Jose lost $7,000; and Mrs. Emily Pine, also of Mission San Jose, averred that she had entrusted almost $6000 to members of the companies. Others in the township were among the victims of the alleged swindle.

The defendants who have just stood trial before Superior Judge Ogden at the Oakland court are V. L. Coffelt and G. R. Searle, officers of the Lusitania Company and the Pittsburg Building and Loan Association, and Frank Smith, Jack Freitas and Rufino Fernandes, salesmen for the alleged bogus concerns.

Shouting Was Entirely Necessary In This Case

Aroused by what they thought were a child's cries for help, several Niles people one night last week summoned Constable Tom Silva and O. E. Ebright and directed them to the home of John Lopez, from whose place the shouts seemed to come. Investigation by the officers found Lopez intent on making his rather deaf daughter understand what he was saying. Hence the loud tones. The officers concluded that nothing could be done about it, even if it was disturbing the local peace.

Miss Margaret Voyer, of Piedmont, is spending the week with Mrs. Rosalie Donovan.

JOSEPH SUNDERER, MISSION SAN JOSE PIONEER, PASSES

Last of the Early Settlers Dies After Long Illness

Joseph Sunderer, 90, pioneer resident and business man of Mission San Jose, died at his home there last Thursday after a long illness. Funeral services were held Saturday morning from the residence at Mission San Jose. A requiem mass was said at St. Josephs church. Interment was in the St. Joseph's cemetery.

He is survived by three daughters—Mrs. Walter McGinley, of San Jose; Miss Abbie Sunders, and Mrs. Rose C. Whiteside. There are two grandchildren, Walter Roseliner and Josephine McGinley, both of San Jose.

Sunderer was a native of Baden, Germany, and came to the United States as a young man. He settled at Mission San Jose when that town was a gathering place of gold seekers.

He was well known throughout Alameda county, having been, in 1897, a leading figure in the celebration that marked the 100th anniversary of the founding of the mission at the place where it now stands.

He served as a school trustee and was also secretary of the Ancient Order of United Workers until the organization disbanded more than twenty years ago.

Sunderer was an expert cobbler. He also conducted an insurance agency, and was recently honored by his company for long and faithful service.

A staunch democrat, Sunderer wrote President Roosevelt, congratulating him upon his election to the presidency. The president's reply was one of Sunderer's treasured possessions.

He was the last of the old pioneers who first settled at the Mission. All those finding an interest in the early mission days, would always go to Sunderer for confirmation of material found. He and Mrs. Sunderer were active in the restoration of the Mission.

Sunderer was loved and honored by all who knew him well. The example that he set, of industry, thrift and helpfulness was always an inspiration to those about him.

Coming to the mission in 1868, Sunderer saw the town pass through many stages of change. Always helping the poor and the weak Sunderer maintained his quiet, firm manner, as characteristic of him. Few Americans loved and honored the United States as did this native of Germany.

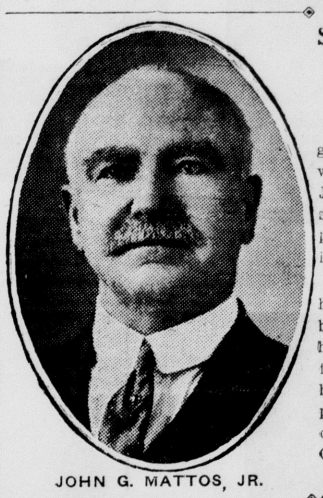
Honorable and straightforward, sincere in his efforts to be of service, Joseph Sunderer has left an irreparable gap in the life of Mission San Jose.

Niles Woman Hurt As Car Overturns Sunday

Mrs. C. Pimentel, of Niles, suffered injuries to the left forearm Sunday when the automobile in which she was riding plunged over a low embankment near Long Ridge. She was the only one of the party to be injured, and was taken to the San Jose Hospital for emergency treatment. She is now at home and reported as recovering from the injury and a mild shock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Petsche returned this week from a two weeks vacation in Whittier.

JOHN G. MATTOS JR., HONORED CITIZEN, CALLED BY DEATH



JOHN G. MATTOS, JR.

Succumbs After Protracted Illness at 3 P. M. Monday

All of Washington township was grief-stricken Monday when it was learned that John G. Mattos, Jr., long active and respected in southern Alameda county, had passed away after a prolonged illness.

Sixty-nine years of age, Mattos had for the last several years been more or less confined to his home, after it became necessary for him to cease active business because of his failing health. He passed away at about three o'clock Monday afternoon at his Centerville home.

John Mattos was born in Horta City, Fayal, Azores, August 1, 1864, and emigrated to the United States in 1879, settling in Washington township, where he lived until the time of his death.

In 1886 he became a citizen by naturalization. He joined the Republican party, and had been an ardent worker for that organization ever since. He was elected road overseer of the Centerville district in 1888, and was reelected in 1890. In 1891 he was appointed deputy assessor, serving four years in that office.

In 1889 he was made notary public, keeping his license up until the time of his death.

In 1893 he was elected a member of the Centerville school board, and was re-elected in 1896. He served for many terms since on the board. In 1895 he was elected a member of the board of trustees of Washington Union High school, and was made secretary.

Passing an extremely successful examination before the supreme court in August, 1897, he was admitted to the practice of law, his clientele growing to huge proportions as the years told of this successful practice.

1894, John Mattos was elected supreme president of the U. P. E. C., the strongest Portuguese fraternal organization in the state of California. He was re-elected to this office the following year. During the years 1896 and '97 he was elected as supreme director of the organization.

From the beginning of the century up until the start of his fatal illness, Mattos built up an extensive law practice. He was regarded as a splendid attorney, and his services were much in demand.

Running for state assemblman from this district in 1903, Mattos was overwhelmingly elected. His record as a representative is one marked by his splendid service to those who elected him. At no time did he become smothered in the web of politics, and his interest was always with his district.

After serving in the State Assembly for six years, Mattos represented this district in the State Senate for eight years. Under Governor Pardee he was appointed to the State Board of Harbor Commissioners. He served the Federal Government under presidents Roosevelt and Taft as Appraiser of the Port of San Francisco. He was a member of the State Prison Board under Governors Stephens and Richardson.

John G. Mattos, Jr. was a justice of the peace in Washington township for two terms.

He was one of the organizers of the Bank of Centerville and president of that organization. When it merged with the Bank of America, Mattos became Vice-

CANYON ACCIDENT KILLS FRESNO GIRL

Jean Hanks, 8-year-old Fresno girl, was killed and the remainder of the party she was riding with seriously injured last Wednesday morning, when their car got out of control and plunged over a nine-foot embankment in Niles Canyon.

The car apparently swerved to the side and struck the low stone ramp that borders the highway at that point. Hurtling over, the car landed up-side down in the creek bed.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Mabel Hanks, her two brothers, and C. T. Hill, 60, of Madera, were all injured. They are expected to recover.

According to reports, Hill, who was driving are car, reached over to get something from the back seat without stopping the machine. The car swerved suddenly and he was unable to get it back under control in time to avoid the crash.

CRASH NEAR NILES KILLS ALAMEDA WOMAN

Mrs. Harry Tilsner, of Alameda, was killed Saturday afternoon at about 2:00 when the car driven by her husband hurtled into a deep culvert on the highway between Niles and Decoto. Mrs. Tilsner died of her injuries as she was being rushed to a Hayward hospital.

According to reports, Tilsner fell asleep at the wheel of the car, his wife failing to awaken him quickly enough to avoid the crash. Fred Wallace, of Hayward was the first to arrive at the scene of the wreck. He lifted Mrs. Tilsner from the car, and assisted Tilsner, who sustained a fractured arm and severe lacerations.

Both were rushed to the office of Dr. Wright, Niles physician, for first aid. Mrs. Tilsner was taken in an ambulance to Hayward. She died on the way.

MOTORIST CUTS-IN; PAYS FINE FRIDAY AT JUSTICE COURT

E. E. Alexander, San Jose chicken rancher, was fined ten dollars in the Niles justice court last Friday, when he was found guilty of a violation of the motor vehicle act.

He was arrested at 4:30 p. m. Sunday by Officer Duffey Lewis, on the highway just beyond Mission San Jose. He had cut-in on several cars, forcing them off the road on either side.

He pleaded not guilty to the charges, saying that he did not consider any danger was involved in passing cars in the face of oncoming traffic. He added that he was in a great hurry to get home and feed his hens, which fact, he said, may have accounted for his apparent haste.

CHAMBER DUBIOUS ON PROMOTION SCHEME

Meeting at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday afternoon, the executive committee of the Niles Chamber of Commerce discussed a plan submitted by E. Mason, promoter, for a huge "farewell to the Essanay Studio" celebration in August.

Mason says that he is sure that he can induce more than 10,000 people to Niles for the two days on which the affair would take place. He says that he would have numbers of the old Essanay stars, and many new ones, as an attraction for the multitudes.

According to the prevalent opinion of the members of the chamber, and the merchants in general, the proposed function is entirely too hazardous to risk at the present time, since a failure of it would cost the town thousands of dollars.

Former Essanay Cowboy Regrets Studio Passing

"I hate to see the old place go," was the gloomy statement of Frank Pimentel as he watched the progress of the wreckers at the Essanay building. Frank well remembers the days when, as head cowboy for G. M. Anderson's dashing crew, he rode his mount up hill and down dale before the grinding cameras. Pimentel, an excellent rider, was often used as a double for G. M. himself, when some particularly hazardous stunt was necessary. Frank says that it used to be great fun, riding with the fellows and "shooting up" the town. Many a small boy peered out awe-stricken from safe vantage points as the cowboys rode through.

SANTA CLARA TAX HEAD AT HAYWARD TELLS OF TAX COST

Guy R. Kinsley Says Tax Crisis Is Reached In State

"No government can exist that costs more than the people can pay," was one of the timely statements of Guy R. Kinsley, head of the Citizens League on Government and Taxation of Santa Clara county, in his address before the newly-formed Eden Township Taxpayer League, at their meeting at the Hayward High school last Friday night.

At the invitation of Parker F. Braman, head the new league at Hayward several officials of the Washington Township Tax League attended the meet.

In his talk Kinsley stressed the need for economy in government, giving figures that showed the cost of state government for the years 1931-32-33 to be vastly greater than its cost in the boom years of 1927-28-29. Kinsley said that the delinquency in tax payments in forty counties of the state have increased from 40 to 150 per cent during the last year. Many counties in the state are over 40 per cent delinquent. Kinsley said that we are fighting a war in peace, against insidious foes. He said that we have been lulled and placated by minorities and promises, and that the cost of government has risen steadily in the last three years in spite of the protests of the taxpayers. He stated that signs of an approaching tax crisis can be read from the fact that in spite of additional tax measures the incomes of the state and national government have not increased, the reason being that people can no longer pay the taxes demanded. Hence the deficits, as the government spends money that is not in its coffers.

Kinsley said that the formation of militant taxpayers associations throughout the state, all under a central head, will assure economy that will not come as long as the present unconcern of tax spenders persists.

W. K. Schofield, executive secretary of the Common Property Tax Association of California, spoke on the ballot measures of Tuesday.

Will Patterson, treasurer of the Washington Township Tax League, and Mrs. E. H. Stevenson, head of the schools committee were at the meet. Mrs. J. R. Whipple accompanied them.

WARM, SUNNY DAYS SPEED UP PEST CONTROL

With warm weather greatly speeding up mosquito breeding, keeping one jump ahead of these pestiferous insects calls for rapid work on the part of Roland Bendel, inspector of the Mosquito Abatement District.

Mosquito eggs had already hatched into the "wriggler" stage as Bendel last week oiled thirteen dairy drains, twenty-three cesspools in Irvington and Alvarado, and roadside ditches near Newark, Irvington, Warm Springs and Mission San Jose. This work must be repeated at intervals as successive hatchings of mosquito eggs appear.

Longer lasting control measures were taken as Bendel distributed mosquito fish to fifty-one ponds, watering troughs and similar permanent bodies of water.

Bendel and Walter Walker, laborer, also found time to construct 210 feet of drainage ditch on Turk Island marsh, south of Alvarado, and to burn vegetation along 1200 feet of existing ditch and slough.

PUPILS, PARENTS ENJOY CANYON PICNIC

Feeling that the weather was propitious for a splendid picnic, between seventy and eighty pupils in Mrs. Clarence Crane's piano and rhythm band classes enjoyed an outing and picnic at Lakeside park in Niles Canyon last Thursday. Parents of the pupils were invited and many attended.

Spending the entire day, the picnickers swam and played games until noon, when a delicious picnic lunch was served. Late in the afternoon, when all were hungry again from their exertions, refreshments were offered.

The picnic Thursday was one of several such annual treats for the pupils of Mrs. Crane, and their parents.

WATER LEVEL THIS YEAR HIGHER THAN LAST YEAR

J. C. Shinn, a director of the water district, last Tuesday told of the higher ground water level this year in the Niles area. Acording to Shinn, the records show that the level last year at this time was between eleven inches and a foot and a half lower.

Although the rainfall this year was 56 per cent short of normal it fell on the Calvareras and Alameda watersheds, in long showers, thus tending to increase the surface run-off. This concentration of rain in the spring afforded a large catchment in the Caleveras dam, assuring a long release of water down the Alameda creek. Shinn said that in spite of heavy pumping this year on both sides of the fault, the water continues to flow over the fault from east to west, indicating that some subgravel flow is persisting down the creek bed.

The water level east of the fault race is higher this year than last at this time, Shinn stated.

MARTIN S. FRANCIS, LONG RESIDENT IN TOWNSHIP, PASSES

Prominent Grocer Dies Suddenly Friday, June 23rd

Martin S. Francis, resident of Washington township for thirty-three years, passed away suddenly at his home in Centerville on Friday afternoon, June 23. Although he had been under the doctor's care for a few weeks, his illness was not considered of a fatal nature if he did not exert himself too much. His death came as a shock to his many friends.

Born in Alvarado in 1874, Francis entered the grocery business nineteen years ago in Centerville. Beginning first with a small establishment he enlarged his business until at the time of his death he was proprietor of the Red and White, large Centerville grocery store.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Leonora Francis, and by two sons and two daughters—Robert and Gilbert, and Pauline and Wilma, all of Centerville.

The funeral, under the direction of the Chapel of Palms, was from the Francis home Monday. An impressive one, it was attended by hosts of friends.

Mrs. Matilda Enos Made Presiding Officer at Meet

The Betsy Ross Parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West were honored last Wednesday evening at Hotel Leamington, Oakland, by the appointment of Mrs. Matilda Enos as presiding officer of the meeting of 1200 Native daughters gathered at the hotel for the Grand parlor convention. "CLIPPER" SMITH HEARD BY MANY AT LION MEETING

Famous Sports Writers Also Lions Guests Tuesday

"Clipper" Smith, Santa Clara coach, Tuesday night addressed one of the most outstanding meeting ever to be held in the township, when he spoke before the Centerville Lions Club on the use of football as a character builder for high school and college students.

Speaking before a gathering of more than 80, including Lions, sports writers, and prominent Washington township people, Smith told of the benefit derived from the trials and crisis of the football field.

The "Clipper," who said that he was glad that he had come, was accompanied to the meet by Sam Dunn, graduate athletic manager of Santa Clara University. Dunn made a few short remarks before the group.

Sports writers of the Bay region, who lose no opportunity to hear what the "Clipper" says were at the meet. Al Santoro, sports editor of the Post-Enquirer and Al Vermeer were among them.

Among those who heard Smith talk were Judge J. Harder of Hayward and Manuel Duarte, who represented the Elks Club.

Tony Enos, as chairman for the evening, is to be commended on the splendid way in which he conducted the affair.

The meet Tuesday night is another feather in the cap of a live, active Washington township organization, the Centerville Lions.

HODGKINS FORDS ARE NOSED OUT BY CRUSHERS

Playing a much better brand of ball than they did last Sunday, but still laboring under their curse of errors, the Hodgkins Fords lost to the Orange Crushers at San Pablo Park, Oakland, Sunday by a score of 5 to 4. The incongruity of the score can be imagined when the Fords gathered twelve hits to the Crushers five. Five runs for five hits was the Crushers record for the day.

Spud Dagermark hurled one of his best games so far this season. He allowed only five bingles, walked one and struck out five. Good, solid support behind Spud this season would have resulted in a string of Ford wins.

Bigelow of the Crushers was no puzzle to the Fords, but his teammates nailed many men on the sacks.

Traveling again next Sunday, the Fords will meet the Alameda Eagles at Alameda. This will be the second game with the Eagle outfit.

Most Colorful Parade To Be Held July 4 In Pleasanton

Plans for the big Fourth of July parade to be held in Pleasanton July 4, are rounding into shape rapidly, and according to Ernest Schween, chairman, a big and attractive parade is expected.

Invitations have been extended to all towns in the county to participate in the parade. Letters have been received by Schween from a number of the towns which have signified their intention to participate, including Niles, Dublin, Livermore, Hayward, Mission San Jose, Centerville and Sunol.

All out of town floats and decorated autos will march in their respective divisions, and the place where they will form will be announced next week.

Everyone in the community is requested to take part in the parade. A special division is being arranged for decorated cars, where everyone will have a chance to enter. The business houses, civic and fraternal organizations are planning to enter floats in the parade.

The committee is anxious to have as many floats and cars in the parade as possible, and suggest the cars and floats be attractively but inexpensively decorated.

Working on the parade committee with Schween are the Mesdames Edna Harris, J. B. Lee, Mary Stovall, Charles Graham and A. B. Pickard, Peter Madsen and Frank Garatti

Chairman Schween and the Mesdames Harris, Lee, and Stovall will have charge of the Fourth of July parade, which will start at ten thirty in the morning.

Charles Graham has charge of the business firms' floats; Peter Madsen is looking after the floats entered by the civic and fraternal organizations, and Mayor Pick and Garatti will have charge of street arrangements and the reception of visitors.

No prizes will be given for the decorated floats in the Fourth of July parade, Schween stated.

Pleasanton Lady Is Hurt In Accident

Mrs. Mary Stovall of Pleasanton, received severe bruises when the car in which she was riding ran off a one hundred foot embankment on the Redwood highway, about sixty miles from Willits, California, last Monday.

Mrs. Stovall is confined to the Willits hospital, where physicians state that no bones have been broken, but that she is suffering with a shock and severe bruises.

She was motoring with Miss Emma Busly, of Oakland, along the highway when their car was caught in the loose sand, with the result it got out of control and went over the embankment. The car was completely demolished.

Henry Cook, brother of Mrs. Stovall, went to Willits Tuesday to see her.

Young Pleasanton Folk Enjoy Picnic

A number of young Pleasanton people came to Niles canyon last Saturday evening and enjoyed a weiner roast at the Sims' camping grounds.

Hot buns, pickles, olives, potato chips and roasted marshmallows and weiners made up the menu.

Among those in the party were Danny Pous, Irene Ghiotti, Elvira Escobar, Joseph Cunha, John Garibaldi, Norma Hailey, Jack Pous, Mary Brown, John Dutra, Dorothy Miller and Jofretta Pous, all of Pleasanton.

Booster's Caps Are in Demand in Pleasanton

A large number of attractive red, white and blue jockey caps are appearing on the street, advertising the Pleasanton Fourth of July celebration. The leading clothing stores are all carrying these caps on hand. The caps are made on the same style as are regular jockey caps, but are made in the national colors.

The caps this year have a white shield instead of the blue, and on the shield is printed, "Pleasanton, July 4th."

STORM OF PROTEST MEETS STOPPING OF U. S. MARKET NEWS

Township Growers Write Agriculture Head On Decision

Like a blasting bolt out of the blue summer sky on Monday came the unhearalded federal order that the Federal Marketing News Service be discontinued on June 30 —tomorrow.

Farmers in the Niles area during the week added their protests to the thousands of telegrams to the secretary of agriculture demanding that the service be reinstated.

Th storm of protest from all over the United States has been lashing the department of agricultural headquarters during the week, in order that the announcement may be reversed. If the decision is not changed, untold damage will be done to all types of production of fruits, grains and cattle. If the order stands, the farmer must henceforth market his produce in the dark, the victim of predatory dealers and speculators, who will offer the luckless farmers any price they please, without danger of being gainsaid.

For years large marketing interests have fought the idea of giving the farmer marketing knowledge. It has been an underhanded fight to place the producer in a position where he cannot market his stuff intelligently. Such a decision as the one to go into effect on June 30 will do untold damage to all growers.

Under the guise of economy, the service has been obliterated, an expensive economy for the rancher and fruit grower.

Apricot growers in Washington township, realizing their plight unless the marketing information is continued during the week so far, followed the timely lead of the Niles Chamber of Commerce in sending telegrams and air mail letters to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace at Washington, D. C., voicing their protest of the proposed discontinuation.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to heartily thank all those who took part in making the Boy Scout Benefit Whist Tuesday night a success and the merchants for their cooperation and help.

CLEAN UP YOUR LOT! FIREMEN WILL HELP

Beginning a clean-up campaign Monday evening, the Niles Fire Department started the burning of grass in vacant lots about town, in an effort to reduce the fire hazard during the summer months.

According to Clarence Crane, the department will tend to the burning of grass provided the owners of the property will first clear the debris away from building, fences and so forth.

Monday evening the firemen burned the first grass of the season on the lot behind the Register office, saying that it was the only one properly cleaned up at that time.

It is a genuine service to the town, for the firemen to spend their after-work hours in cleaning up danger spots within the city limits. They should be accorded the upmost cooperation by the citizens in order that the work may be brought to a speedy conclusion.

Clean up your lot and the firemen will supervise the burning of the grass.

Mrs. Julia Shinn, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Tyler and daughter, of Watsonville, left this week for Chicago. They will be gone about a month.

SANTA INEZ LODGE AT WARM SPRINGS OPEN SATURDAY

First Vavation School Of Its Kind In Washington Township

Completely refitted and landscaped to serve as a splendid summer camp for girls, the old Stanford place, now called Santa Inez Lodge, under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy Names, was opened Saturday, June 24, with a large number of girls in attendance from various sections about San Francisco bay. There are girls at Santa Inez from as far south as Hollister.

Offering all manner of supervised sports, with proper hours of rest, and study, if desired, the lodge gives promise of being one of the most popular vacation centers for girls in the northern part of the state. The swimming pool, remodeled on the site of the old buildings of the original Warm Springs, offers ample opportunity for bathers. It is planned to use the small lake on the property for canoeing and rowing.

Compliments of the community were offered to the Sisters on the opening day, George Roeding, Jr., of the California Nursery Company, sending two beautiful cedar trees, which were planted on either side of the long drive.

The first vacation school of its kind in southern Alameda county, Santa Inez Lodge is certain to be a popular spot for young girls intent on spending an enjoyable few weeks in the country.

Large Fire Destroys Pleasanton Warehouse

The old distillery on Abbey street, belonging to Mrs. Peter Regalia was burned to the ground in a fire which broke out shortly after eight o'clock last Wednesday evening.

The building has not been used for a number of years. According to nieghbors who saw the fire shortly after it started, a small shed nearby caught fire first.

The Legion boys, who were holding a meeting at the Veterans Memorial building, sent in the alarm, and then hauled the furniture from the house which was only a few feet away.

When the fire department arrived, the warehouse was too far gone to save, so the fire lads concentrated on saving nearby houses.

It is regretable that there is such a lack of interest shown in the department. A few years ago almost every man in town would turn out with the department and give a hand, but now it seems that even the firemen fail to respond. The few faithful volunteer firemen need help if the town is to enjoy fire protection.

Delightful refreshments, served by Mrs. A. Littlefield and Mrs. Weston, who acted as joint hostesses for the group, brought the evening to a close.

Twenty members were present for the meeting, and all report a most enjoyable time.

GIVE OLD JEWELRY TO HELP OUT NEEDY

New Yorkers Donate Worn Rings and Gold Teeth.

New York.—Mrs. J. B. Walker, prominent parishioner of Trinity church, never envisioned herself as a junk dealer of consequence, but that is what she has turned out to be, much to the net gain of the city's idle thousands. This was demonstrated recently when dignified old gentlemen surreptitiously dropped gold false teeth, along with old umbrella and cane handles, watch fobs, lodgepins, stickpins, and cuff buttons into the collection plate at Trinity, adding to a constantly changing heap of odds and ends, which Mrs. Walker began collecting last fall as her personal contribution to the jobless.

At first Mrs. Walker, wife of Dr. J. B. Walker, collected such articles from her friends. So rich proved the treasure from old bureau drawers, however, that before long she had made five trips downtown to the government assay office, had added some two pounds of gold to the national resources and had turned to the unemployed fund of the Episcopal churches, under the leadership of Bishop Gilbert, assistant to Bishop Manning, some $500.

Gold and Silver.

Soon, all of Mrs. Walker's friends in the Church Women's league began rifling the bureau drawers of their friends. Now the women have established headquarters at the Allerton house and there, between ten and four o'clock every day, a fairly steady procession of people come, bringing everything from old wedding rings and gold teeth to silver napkin rings and picture frames. In the meantime the Little Church Around the Corner and Grace church have also collected Sunday offerings of gold and silver for the "junk shop," and St. Thomas' and St. Bartholomew's will inaugurate a similar gift day very soon—and these churches, Mrs. Walker believes, offer great possibilities. If each St. Thomas bride, says Mrs. Walker, brought in all of the gold and silver wedding presents which she had never used and never wanted, the unemployed would be considerably enriched.

"Men are walking gold mines," Mrs. Walker said. "There isn't a man in this town, scarcely, who hasn't a gold gift pencil or an old stickpin, or one of a set of gold cuff links somewhere. Why, one day at a Philharmonic concert, I approached the woman sitting next to me on this subject—I had met her, of course—and a gentleman next to her overheard me. He fished through his pockets, produced a gold good luck piece he had been carrying for 20 years and added that he had any number of items at home he'd send me.

Every One Saves Gold.

"You see, nobody throws gold away, even when it is only one earring left of a set, or one cuff link, or even an old gold tooth. Yet, they never do anything with them. They haven't enough to melt down themselves—you have to have $100 worth, or five ounces, before the government will melt it for you—and, although people have no use for these things, an ingrained instinct of thrift causes them never to throw away any gold article."

The collection of silver is not melted because of the low market value of silver at the present time. But Mrs. Walker has found a market among various antique dealers, who often give her very good prices for old silver articles, especially now that Victorianism is being revived. All of the gold is melted and the alloy removed, except in very rare instances, when an unusual article brings more than its gold value from a dealer.

"Many people make a point of having their contributions melted," she said. "Often it has names and dates or initials, and while the owners do not mind giving it up impersonally to the government, they do not like to think of it as passing into other hands."

One of the richest sources of income has been from gold wedding rings. The modern woman has, in many cases, replaced her heavy gold wedding ring with a new platinum and diamond. Divorces and deaths also have added to the number of wedding rings laid away in the old jewel cases for no particular purpose.

Texas University Now Has "Sleeping Course"

Austin, Texas.—For students who are "tired and rundown" at the University of Texas there is the course labeled "Sleeping P. T." they can take—the "P. T." standing for "physical training."

The classroom is fitted with cots on which pupils lie for 30 minutes each class period.

"The course is simply a period of rest and recuperation for students unable to take strenuous exercise," S. N. Ekdahl, the instructor, said.

Birds Pick Variety of Locations for Nesting

Birds that nest in holes or burrows are the wood duck, owls, woodpeckers, tree swallow, house wren, brown creeper, nuthatch, titmouse, chickadee, bluebird, bank swallow, kingfisher.

The birds which usually build their nests on the ground are the woodcock, bob-white, ruffed grouse, whippoorwill, white-throated sparrow, towhee, black and white warbler, Canadian warbler, hermit thrust and marsh hawk.

In the undergrowth and in low bushes, you will find the nests of the field sparrow, song sparrow, cardinal, white-eyed vireo, most of the warblers, catbird, brown thrasher and winter wren.

In the higher bushes and the lower branches of trees, nest the mourning dove, kingbird, blue jay, chipping sparrow, gold finch, rose-breasted grosbeak, scarlet tanager, cedar waxwing, yellow warbler, kinglet, wood thrush and robin.

In the higher branches of the trees, far out of reach so that you see only the under side of the nests are the platforms of the herons and the eagles, the hawks, and the ospreys. Many of these nests are used from year to year by the same birds and should not be disturbed.

Samoans Happy People; They Laugh at Anything

The Samoans are a happy race. They are smiling all the time except when they are laughing and it takes very little to make them laugh. A large group of native stevedores toiling under the torrid sun were thrown into convulsions by the sight of a tractor which they were taking from the hold. They concluded it was some new kind of automobile with a single seat.

The Samoan has little or nothing to worry him and hence his jovial disposition. His food grows all about him and his clothing demands are quite limited. A clean garment of bright colors and some cheap jewelry make a well-dressed woman and the young children wear no clothes at all. There are many short and sudden showers, but as a rule the climate is warm and sunny and the temperament of the people seems to be the same.—Los Angeles Times.

Grant Went Broke

General Grant left the Presidency of the United States a fairly well-to-do man. He toured the world after his retirement, and then three years later was defeated for nomination for a third term. Then it was that he invested what money he had in Wall Street and became a member of the firm of Grant & Ward. Three years later the firm went down in failure and Grant was bankrupt. He was forced to earn money by writing for magazines, and he provided for the future of his family by writing his memoirs. He persevered on his book despite grievous illness, and finished it only four days before his death.

Invented Pari-Mutuel Plan

A Frenchman named Oller invented the pari-mutuel system of betting on horse races in about 1872. In 1880 a man in New Zealand named Ekberg, who had studied Oller's procedure, conceived the idea of automatically recording bets. He devised a machine for the purpose, called it a totalizer, and used it for the first time at the Canterbury Jockey club's meeting at Christchurch, New Zealand, in 1880. It was not until 1908 that the pari-mutuel system of betting was methodically exploited in the United States, and in the spring of that year it was adopted in Kentucky.

Slayers of Presidents

Leon Czolgocz, murderer of President William McKinley, was electrocuted in the state prison at Auburn, N. Y., October 29, 1901. After an autopsy his body was buried in quicklime in the prison lot in an Auburn cemetery. Charles Guiteau, who killed President Garfield, drew up a will shortly before he was hanged on June 30, 1882, in which he left the disposition of his body to Rev. William Hicks, who spent the last hours with him. It was buried beneath the pavement of a court in a wing of the jail in Washington, where he was executed.

Swan on War Path

An indignant swan held up traffic an Antrim road, Belfast. It had been chased by a curious dog and finally found itself on the tram lines. It showed its resentment of trams, as well as motor cars, by attacking the vehicles, its wings flapping protestingly, and at one time three cars were stopped while it pecked at their radiators. It was finally induced to return to its pond.

Sow Bears 20 Baby Pigs

Ashland, Ore.—Ray Spencer, local stockman, proudly exhibits a litter of 20 piglets which belong to one sow. All save one of the litter thrived and were able to find a dinner spot.

Acrobatic Drum Majors Usually Get Good Hand

The gymnastic drum major was once a favorite feature of public processions, and these performers were often of national repute. Of recent years, however, there has been a more modest behavior at the van of the musical organizations, the time markers restraining themselves to sedate movements to guide the cadence of their followers. The old-style twisters of the baton came back into vogue and won the plaudits of the crowd.

People like to laugh, and they are quick to acclaim with mirth anything that is peculiar and out of the ordinary. The drum major who flings his baton high in the air while he executes a double shuffle, who struts with exaggerated pomposity and protruding chest, who cake-walks his way along the route, is sure of a "hand" from the crowded curbs. Certain bands cannot tolerate such behavior at their van, for they have reputations as musicians to maintain rather than as comedians. It has in the course of many years been noted that the drum major who wins the loudest applause usually heads the poorest band.—Washington Star.

Coldest Place, Between Hudson Bay and Alaska

The coldest part of North America is the tract between Hudson bay and Alaska. In the neighborhood of the Mackenzie river the temperature probably falls at times to 75 degrees below zero, states the author of "Climates of the Continents."

The 1926 government weather report of lowest temperature shows a drop of 76 degrees below zero in January, 1866, at Tanana, Alaska, and at Eagle, Alaska, during the same month, a drop in the temperature of 75 degrees below zero. There is no record of the temperature falling as low as 80 degrees begrees below zero in Alaska, but undoubtedly the temperature frequently drops to more than 80 degrees below zero in parts of Siberia.

The lowest temperature ever authentically recorded in the United States was 65 degrees below zero, which occurred at Fort Keough, near Miles City, Mont., in January, 1888.

Concave Mirrors

An ordinary mirror reflects light directly from its entire surface, but a concave or convex mirror reflects as if every distinct point of its surface were a separate and very small plane mirror. These mirrors produce upon light effects similar to those of lenses, except that the concave mirror corresponds to the convex lens and the convex mirror to the concave lens. Now, as in a lens, from whatever direction rays of light may fall upon a concave mirror, they are brought to a focus near the central ray, and if they fall obliquely from one side of the axis of the mirror, they will be reflected at the same angle on the other side of the axis. Therefore, the mirror will form an inverted image of any object placed before it, just as the lens does, and the image will be near or distant, and large or small, according to the divergence of the approaching rays, just as with lenses.

Nelson Relics

The announcement of the sale of a spy glass said to have been the property of Lord Nelson has been the means of arousing great interest in the Nelson relics. An aged clerk of the admiralty remembered having seen a small desk stored in an attic of one of the government buildings which was thought to have a Nelson connection and when the search was made and it was located and cleaning revealed an inscription roughly scratched upon it, indicating that it had been the property of Lord Nelson. It was repaired and sent to the reconditioned Victory. Another desk and spy glass were discovered in the British consulate in Tripoli. All of these relics are duly authenticated.

Hardened Copper

There are numerous processes of hardening copper by adding to it small amounts of other metals. No specimen of pure copper has been found which had a greater degree of hardness than can be produced by hammering. Any expert metallurgist of today can produce an edged tool of hardened copper as good as any made in prehistoric times, but the great majority of modern steel tools eliminates the demand for hardened copper.

View 300-Year-Old Creed Book

Thousands of Sikhs, a Hindu community in the Punjab of India, have been flocking to gaze upon one of the historic manuscript books of their faith. The book, known as the Adi Granth, was on display at the residence of the Guru, their spiritual chief, at Kartarpur. The Adi Granth was written by the fifth Guru more than 300 years ago, and it is said that only two men have read it. The Sikhs originally were a religious community founded by Baba Banak, who was born in 1649.

Speed of Sun Is Found to Vary; Study Effects

Washington.—The discovery of 6,000 new nebulae of "isolated universes" countless billions of miles from the earth is announced in the annual report of the Carnegie institution of Washington.

Millions of these nebulae, each equal in size to the galaxy of which the earth is a part, are believed to be out in unexplored regions of the universe.

One such cluster contains about 150 nebulae 800,000,000,000 miles from the earth in the general direction of the constellation Gemini.

Measurement of the speed of the sun, made at the Mount Wilson observatory, shows that it varies from 1.9 to 2.06 kilometers per second. A kilometer is approximately three-fifths of a mile. It is not yet known whether this variation has any effect on the earth, but it seems to have no effect on the eleven-year cycle of increasing and decreasing sun spots that is known to affect conditions of the earth.

Baby Crying for Milk Saves Family From Fire

Hoosic Falls, N. Y.—The poignant cries of a baby for its milk are credited with saving the lives of five persons.

The infant, Patricia Leonard, nine months old, awakened her mother, Mrs. John Leonard, who went downstairs to get the milk. She discovered a fire on the lower floor. She aroused her husband and their other child, Shirley, three, and her mother, Mrs. Lillian Coonradt. Leonard bundled the baby in a blanket, and the family fled from their home.

BUFORD HALL RETURNS FROM LONG BEACH TRIP

Buford Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, of Pleasanton, returned home last week end after spending a vacation of six weeks visiting his sister at Long Beach.

Buford reported that Long Beach is still having slight earthquaker every day, and that the people are slowly rebuilding the city, which was seriously damaged by the big quake which they recently experienced.

NEWARK WALLOPS ALVARADO 10-4 SUNDAY

Beginning with H. Robinson's three-base clout in the second inning with three men on base, the Newark J and F's smeared Alavardo 10 to 4 at Newark Sunday. Every man on the J and F's crossed the pad at least once, with the exception of Cooper, who twirled a nice enough game to be excused. Cooper allowed only nine bingles, keeping those well enough scattered to avoid danger. He struck out five and walked none. Soito, Newark catcher, found the seed for three bingles in five trips to the pad. That makes seven consecutive hits in as many times to the plate for Soito. He garnered four hits last Sunday in four tries.

Newark box score:

	A.B.	R.	H.
H. Robinson, s.s.	5	1	2
Soito, c.	5	1	3
Robinson, 3b	5	1	1
DeValle, 2b.	5	1	1
Dondero, 1b.	2	2	0

Ornellos, c.f.	4	2	2

SCOUT BENEFIT CARD PARTY DRAWS MULTITUDE

Attracting more than seventy-five people, the Boy Scout benefit whist party Tuesday night at the Veterans' Memorial building, was concluded as an outstanding success. More than fifteen tables of whist continued play throughout the evening. Thirty-two prizes were given, all contributed by people who regarded the cause as worthy. Niles merchants and shopkkeepers were foremost among the contributors.

The affair was put on by the mothers of the scouts of Troop No. 2, in order to raise funds to repay the Niles Chamber of Commerce for its loan a few weeks ago, for the purchase of flags for the troop.

During the evening, cake and coffee were served to all present.

SLIGHT TREMORS FELT AT NILES SUNDAY

Just to convince the residents of the east bay districts that terra firma has not yet recovered from its recent nervous disorders, a slight earthquake shock was felt throughout Washington township at approximately 12:46 p. m. Sunday. The tremblor was barely perecptible but continued for several minutes.

Professor Perry Byerly, siesmologist at the University of California estimated the epicenter of the quake as 100 miles east of Berkeley. According to instruments at the university, the shocks lasted for about one hour.

The tremors being very light, many people in the township failed to notice them.

continuation of the Federal Marketing News Service. Kirk moved that the chamber immediately send a telegram to the secretary of agriculture, formally announcing its utter disapproval of the stopping of the service. It was unanimously carried that the chamber act, and Kirk and E. A. Ellsworth were appointed to draw up and dispatch the telegram Monday night.

Harvey Braun in his report of the polo team publicity and the delegation to the Pleasanton Fourth of July celebration, said that the team planned to enter a float in the parade. The chamber was asked to assist in the decoration of the float.

In view of the fact that the polo team brought home the "bacon" in the form of a gold loving cup with an inscription proclaiming them exalted champions, the chamber agreed that the publicity obtained was priceless, and that it was heartily glad that it had backed the adventure into new and untried realms of sport. F. V. Jones announced that the cup was on display in the window of his office.

At the close of the meet, Jones wished all of the members an enjoyable vacation, and expressed his entire satisfaction in the splendid attendance maintained by the chamber throughout the year.
